

Sofya Kondrateva is the curator of museum projects at the Cave Research and Protection Center (Russia Voronezh) Candidate of Historical Sciences (2012). From 2009 to 2020, she worked at the Divnogorye Natural, Architectural, and Archaeological Museum-Reserve, and in 2019-2020, she served as the acting director. She is a member of ICOM, the second representative of Russia in the International Speleological Union (UIS), and a member of the Commission on Artificial Caves. She has participated in expeditions to explore the caves of the Middle Don.